WE ARE ALL VULNERABLE

by Dimitri Dimitracacos
The true measure of any society can be found in how it treats its most vulnerable members

Mahatma Gandhi
Solidarity ‘Missing in Action’

Secretary-General UN Secretary-General António Guterres’ addressing the General Assembly.

We face the greatest cascade of crises in our lifetimes. The COVID-19 pandemic has supersized glaring inequalities. The climate crisis is pummelling the planet. Upheaval from Afghanistan to Ethiopia to Yemen and beyond has thwarted peace.

A surge of mistrust and misinformation is polarizing people and paralysing societies. Human rights are under fire. Science is under assault. And economic lifelines for the most vulnerable are coming too little and too late — if they come at all.
Wherever there is a human being, there is an opportunity for a kindness

Lucius Annaeus Seneca
When people live in a fair, caring society, where everyone has equal access to social goods, they don’t have to spend their time worrying about how to cover their basic needs day to day – they can enjoy the art of living. And instead of feeling they are in constant competition with their neighbours, they can build bonds of social solidarity.

Jason Hickel
And if anyone saved a life, it would be as if he saved the life of the whole people

The Qur’an 5:32
Our work for peace must begin within the private world of each of us. To build for man a world without fear, we must be without fear. To build a world of justice, we must be just.

DAG HAMMARSKJOLD

I am just a human being trying to make it in a world that is rapidly losing its understanding of being human.

JOHN TRUDELL

JASON HICKEL

In spite of everything, I still believe that people are really good at heart.

ANNE FRANK

Entre pauvres gens, faut bien qu'on s'aide ... C'est les grands qui font la guerre.
